receipt for SPECIAL HANDLING request

The receipt on the opposite side of this form is intended to show that the material described was received in the Copyright Office on the date given. Receipt of material is merely a preliminary step in the registration/recording process. It does not imply that any final determination has been made in the case, or that the material is acceptable for registration/recording.

Official action on an application for copyright registration or on a document submitted for recording can be taken only after there has been full examination of the claim following regular Copyright Office procedures. We are glad to discuss questions involving copyright registration or recording on the telephone or in person-to-person conversations. However, all statements made during these exploratory discussions must be considered provisional and are not binding either upon the applicant or upon the Office.

Processing a claim under special handling procedures takes a minimum of 5 working days after (1) all the necessary elements are submitted and fees paid and (2) after the request for special handling has been approved. If the claim requires correspondence, processing may be delayed.

SEE REVERSE FOR IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This receipt is intended to show that the material described was received in the Copyright Office on the date given. When multiple claims are submitted by or on behalf of the same remitter, however, only one receipt listing only one title on the receipt will be provided.

Receipt of material is merely a preliminary step in the registration and/or recordation process. It does not imply that any final determination has been made in the case, or that the material is acceptable for registration.

Official action on an application for copyright registration or a document for recordation can be taken only after there has been a full examination of the claim following regular Copyright Office procedures. We are glad to discuss questions involving copyright registration on the telephone or in person-to-person conversations. However, all statements made during these exploratory discussions must be considered provisional, and are not binding either upon the applicant or upon the Office.

Certificate of Registration

This Certificate is issued under the seal of the Copyright Office, in accordance with the several Acts of Congress, under the registration has been made for the work identified below. The information on this certificate has been made a part of the Copyright Office records.
